THE ABORTION CASE.

Dr. D. S. Johnson Indicted for the Death of Hate M'Cormick-Text of the Charges by the Grand Jury.

In yesterday's APPEAL was mentioned the fact that Dr. D. S. Johnson had been indicted for the murder of Kate M'Cormick, the young girl from Hum-boldt whose sad death in this city is yet fresh in the minds of our readers. The indictment against Dr. Johnson is quite lengthy, and charges that said Johnson did, on the twenty-fifth of January, 1876, unlawfully administer to one Kate M'Cormick, then and there, a single woman, divers large quantities of deadly, dangerous, un whole ome, deleterious and pernicious pil's, herbs, drugs, p s tions, teas, liquids, powders and mixtures with intent thereby to cause and procure the miscarriage and abortion of said Kate M'Cormies, and the premature birth and destruction of her said child, with which the said Kate M'Cormick was then and there pregnant. The second count alleges that by means of said drugs, etc., the said D. S. Johnson did cause said premature birth and miscarriage. The third count charges that by means of said drugs, etc., the said D. S. Johnson did feloniously cause the death of the said Kate M'Cormick. And the grand jurors do charge, upon their oaths, that the said D. S. Johnson, by means of said drugs, etc., aforesaid, did then and there feloniously, wilfully, deliberately, pre-meditatedly, and with malice afore-thought kill and murder the said Kate M'Cormick, against the peace and dignity of the State. The indictment is in-dersed "A true bill. R. S. Jones, foreman grand jury." The witnesses summoned before the grand jury were Drs.

John R. Frayser and D. Henning, Mrs. Widrig, Mollis Brown, J. G. Wirg and Rev. L. C. Taylor.
